Pro Se Motion to enlarge page limit of brief
Pro Se Initial Brief of Appellant

Appellant, hereby moves to enlarge the 50 limit page limit of his initial brief to 60 pages for the following reasons:

① Appellant's copy of the transcripts are not accurate, are missing statements as well as questions, have altered words, are uncertified, and make preparation for appeal more difficult, as appellant is pro se and only does his best to bring out facts and adhere to regulations as he learns.

② Appellant's brief is due in the week appellant writes this motion.

③ Appellant's trial lasted 3 days and involved 4 complaining witnesses (including the deceased) 2 state witnesses to the incident 1 defense witness and numerous specialist.

④ Appellant's mother, Celeste Dobbs, has purchased transcripts which are also uncertified and differ from Appellant's copy provided by the office of Public Defender seventh judicial, and Appellant has been given 2 different Adversary Preliminary transcripts 1 with 85 pages the other 65.
also the transcripts have different case numbers from the information. While the information filed reads 48-2006-CF-015201-0 the transcript reads 48-2006 CF-15201. One of the Adversary Preliminary transcripts reads 48-2004-CF-15201-0.

Wherefore, the Appellant, asks this Honorable court for lenience, as he struggles with his unreasonable situation. Appellant does believe his 60 page brief accomplishes its goal none the less. And has thus provided it, with this motion.
I hereby certify that a copy has been provided to the 5th DCA, and the Attorney General's
