

Narrative

The undersigned has probable cause to believe the above-named defendant, on the 0 day of , 0, at approximately [X]a.m. [ ]p.m. at 5570 S ORANGE BLOSSOM TL (Zone 43) in Orange County did

On October 25, 2006 at approximately 0215 hours, the defendant (John W. Dobbs) did cause the death of the victim (William J. Troy) by stabbing him with a deadly weapon likely to produce death or great bodily harm (knife) in his chest.

John W. Dobbs did commit the offense of aggravated battery by stabbing victim (Francisco Gotay) in his chest with a deadly weapon likely to produce death or great bodily harm (knife).

John W. Dobbs did commit the offense of aggravated battery when he stabbed victim (Andre Ramon Blanco) in his chest with a deadly weapon likely to produce death or great bodily harm.

Based on witness and victim testimony; the defendant exited the bar (Doll House) along with a female. They went to their vehicle in the parking lot where a verbal confrontation occurred between the defendant and one of the victims. The defendant left his vehicle and met one of the victims just to the passenger's side of his vehicle. A struggle began and at some point all three victims were involved in a physical fight with the defendant and his girlfriend. The defendant produced a knife, stabbed all three defendants then fled in his vehicle along with his girlfriend. Orange County Rescue responded to the scene and all three victims were transported to Orlando Regional Medical Center. Witness (Hanzel Holiday) followed the suspect vehicle out of the parking lot, onto South Orange Blossom Trail and south to the area of Oakridge Road. Mr. Hanzel Holiday said he pulled up beside the vehicle and the black male driver pointed a handgun at him, he put on the brakes and that's when he believe he heard a gunshot. Orange County Sheriff's Deputies responding to the area located the suspect vehicle and effected a stop at South Orange Blossom Trail and S.R.417. Deputies observed the defendant covered in blood and the black female with him also had blood on her clothing. Both were detained, a handgun and bloody knife was recovered from the vehicle. Witness Anthony Riollano was driven to the location of the traffic stop where he positively identified the defendant and the black female as being involved in the fight. Witness Riollano identified John Dobbs as the person who stabbed his three friends. I advised the defendant of his Miranda warnings and took a recorded statement. During the interview John W. Dobbs said he became involved in the fight with three to four Hispanic males and he pulled out his knife and began to swing at them, trying to keep them off of him. John Dobbs said he did not remember cutting the victims but he noticed one of them being supported by the others prior to him driving away. William John Troy had two stab wounds, to his left and right chest and was pronounced deceased by Doctor Chatham at 0327 hours. Francisco Gotay was found to have a serious cut across his upper lip, and a stab wound to his left chest and is being treated at Orlando Regional Medical Center for the injuries.
Andre Ramon Blanco received a cut to his chin, a defensive wound to his right forearm, a cut under his left biceps and a stab wound to his left chest. Andre Ramon Blanco was being treated at Orlando Regional Medical Center for the injuries.
